

Amendment to the Title Insurance Act:
“Good Funds”
(215 ILCS 155/26), Section 26
Effective January 1, 2010

Effective, January 1, 2010, escrow funds in any real estate transaction are subject to the new “good funds” section of the Title Insurance Act. In order to avoid unnecessary delay at closing, it is suggested that funds be presented at or before closing as follows:

For any funds presented in the amount of $50,000.00 or greater:

- wire transfer
- title company check

For any funds presented less than $50,000.00:

- wire transfer
- cashier’s or certified check
- money order
- personal check not to exceed $5000.00
- check drawn from the account of a licensed attorney or real estate broker
- title company check

Public Act 096-0645

SB2111 Enrolled

LRB096 07715 RPM 17816 b

AN ACT concerning insurance.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
represented in the General Assembly:

Section 5. The Title Insurance Act is amended by adding Section 26 as follows:

(215 ILCS 155/26 new)

Sec. 26. Settlement funds.

(a) A title insurance company, title insurance agent, or independent escrowee shall not make disbursements in connection with any escrows, settlements, or closings out of a fiduciary trust account or accounts unless the funds in the aggregate amount of $50,000 or greater received from any single party to the transaction are good funds as defined in paragraphs (2), (6), or (7) of subsection (c) of this Section; or are collected funds as defined in subsection (d) of this Section.

(b) A title insurance company or title insurance agent shall not make disbursements in connection with any escrows, settlements, or closings out of a fiduciary trust account or accounts unless the funds in the amount of less than $50,000 received from any single party to the transaction are collected funds or good funds as defined in subsection (c) of this Section.

(c) "Good funds" means funds in one of the following forms:

(1) lawful money of the United States;

(2) wired funds unconditionally held by and credited to the fiduciary trust account of the title insurance company, the title insurance agent, or independent escrowee;

(3) cashier's checks, certified checks, bank money orders, official bank checks, or teller's checks drawn on or issued by a financial institution chartered under the laws of any state or the United States and unconditionally held by the title insurance company, title insurance agent, or independent escrowee;

(4) a personal check or checks in an aggregate amount not exceeding $5,000 per closing, provided that the title insurance company, title insurance agent, or independent escrowee has reasonable grounds to believe that sufficient funds are available for withdrawal in the account upon which the check is drawn at the time of disbursement;

(5) a check drawn on the trust account of any lawyer or real estate broker licensed under the laws of any state, provided that the title insurance company, title insurance agent, or independent escrowee has reasonable grounds to believe that sufficient funds are available for withdrawal in the account upon which the check is drawn at the time of disbursement;

(6) a check issued by this State, the United States, or a political subdivision of this State or the United States;

or

(7) a check drawn on the fiduciary trust account of a title insurance company or title insurance agent, provided that the title insurance company, title insurance agent, or independent escrowee has reasonable grounds to believe that sufficient funds are available for withdrawal in the account upon which the check is drawn at the time of disbursement.

(d) "Collected funds" means funds deposited, finally settled, and credited to the title insurance company, title insurance agent, or independent escrowee's fiduciary trust account.

Section 99. Effective date. This Act takes effect January 1, 2010.

Effective Date: 1/1/2010
